Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Slovenian Presidency of the Council of the European Union, the Slovenian Ministry of Education, Science and Sport, and the UNESCO Institute for Lifelong Learning, we have the pleasure of inviting you to an online conference on Adult Learning and Education – The Resilient Response to Future Challenges, which will be held as a ‘dual conference’:

Day 1 on 8 September from 9 am to 1 pm (CEST)

Day 2 on 9 September from 9 am to 2 pm (CEST).

The aim of the conference is to define challenges and recommendations for adult learning and education (ALE) in Europe by 2030. The overall goal of the conference is to share and understand key common issues, innovations, challenges and forward-looking strategies, and to develop recommendations to renew the European vision of ALE, which will in turn feed into preparations for CONFINTEA VII.

For Day 1 (8 September), please confirm your participation by registering via the following link:
